POSITION DUTY STATEMENT

CLASSIFICATION TITLE Executive Assistant	DISTRICT/DIVISION/OFFICE Division of Traffic Operations Executive Office
WORKING TITLE Executive Assistant	POSITION NUMBER 913-350-1728-917	EFFECTIVE DATE

As a valued member of the Caltrans team, you make it possible for the Department to improve the mobility across California by being innovative and flexible; reporting to work as scheduled; working cooperatively with team members and others; and treating others fairly, honestly and with respect. Your efforts are important to each member of the team, as well as those we serve.

GENERAL STATEMENT:

Under the direction of the Chief (CEA III), Division of Traffic Operations (Division), the Executive Assistant provides staff assistance on sensitive Department, Division and Program issues, and performs complex administrative and secretarial support. The incumbent manages the Division's executive office and serves as the subject matter expert on correspondence and business writing. The incumbent will support and promote a positive work environment and productive relationships with all staff and the public in an ethical and professional manner. The incumbent is also expected to secure confidential information from unauthorized disclosure.

TYPICAL DUTIES:

Percentage Job Description

Essential (E) / Marginal (M)

- 30% (E) Research confidential and sensitive Department, Division and Program issues at the request of the Division Chief and Assistant Division Chiefs. This includes gathering pertinent information from various sources, consulting with those parties that are involved or may be affected, studying and analyzing the data, identifying and organizing the most significant facts and findings in a concise and logical manner, explaining and presenting findings and proposing solutions. Develop status reports, computer based information systems, and other tools that support management and assist in decision making. Develop executive office and Division correspondence processes, procedures, operating systems, workflow and planning standards.

- 30% (E) Independently read, analyze, and prioritize incoming correspondence (including confidential and sensitive documents) within the guidelines provided by the Division Chief. Respond to and resolve administrative items that do not need to be referred, forward technical issues to the appropriate Assistant Division Chief or Office Chief for resolution, and identify those items that require immediate attention from the Division Chief. Prepare correspondence for the Division Chief's personal reply with appropriate background material attached for reference.

- Use the Microsoft Outlook calendar features to schedule and manage meetings, appointments, reminders, tasks, activities, deadlines and business travel, etc.

¹ ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS are the core duties of the position that cannot be reassigned

MARGINAL FUNCTIONS are the minor tasks of the position that can be assigned to others

Use the Director's Office Tracking System (DOTS) to manage all Division correspondence that is related to the Director's Office. DOTS provides workflow functionality for task assignments, approval requests, and all related notifications. Access the system to provide summary reports.

Use a variety of Microsoft Office Suite software applications to type letters, memorandums, decision documents, fact sheets, agenda, legislative and Governor's referrals, organizational proposals, reports, forms, tables, spreadsheets, statistical data and other documents. Ensure all documents contain proper grammar, punctuation, spelling, and conform to the Department's and Division's requirements.

Review and analyze all outgoing correspondence prepared by staff for the Division Chief's signature. Make edits to ensure that paragraph and sentence structure, formatting, grammar, punctuation, and clarity conform to Department standards. Provide clear and responsive direction to Division staff on what changes are needed and why.

Keep the Division Chief apprised of all documents signed in their absence.

May direct clerical tasks (typing, copying, meeting logistics, etc.) to Office Technicians to support the executive office.

15% (E) Develop and maintain the Division Chief's administrative, suspense and confidential files, and Division correspondence files, and ensure the filing systems are complete and current. The filing systems may be paper, shared drives on the computer, or e-mail archives. Develop and maintain a tracking system of assignments, due dates, pending issues, etc., and use the system to develop weekly and adhoc reports for the executive office.

15% (M) Coordinate logistics for executive office meetings, workshops, or conferences (face to face, teleconference, video conference, WebEx, etc). Reserve meeting sites; prepare, send and track e-mail invitations; confirm participant attendance; set up the room; and provide or secure necessary equipment and materials.

Develop agendas, create, format, and assemble meeting materials, and distribute meeting information and documents via e-mail or place material into binders or post documents on the intranet.

Attend the Traffic Operations weekly executive staff meeting, take notes, and prepare final notes for Division distribution. Make presentations at Branch/Office/Division meetings. Provide administrative follow-up on action items for the Division Chief after the staff meetings to ensure compliance with commitments and agreements.

Make travel arrangements, including hotel, flight, rental cars, etc., request travel advances, prepare travel itineraries, and prepare travel expense claims for the executive team.

10% (E) Answer the Division Chief's and Division's phone lines, and screen telephone calls from the general public, officials from government and private agencies, and Caltrans staff.

Take accurate messages and deliver them to staff in a timely manner. Exercise good judgment to determine which contacts are urgent and require the Division Chief's immediate attention.

Provide functional guidance to clerical staff on formatting, organization, procedures, and packaging of correspondence and other written communications. Design and implement Division procedures and forms to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of work flow.

Perform special assignments for Division management.

Act as a backup for the Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director for Maintenance and Operations.
